NOTIFICATION

Unclaimed Prize for the Ozone2Climate Art Contest

The national level award ceremony for the Asia Pacific Regional Ozone2Climate Art Contest was held on 4th June 2022 coinciding with the celebration of the World Environment Day at Lungtenzampa Middle Secondary School, Thimphu.

One of the national level winners for this contest, Mr. Tshering Chopel (who has submitted art work under the Graphic Design category) was not present to receive the award during the award ceremony despite several email notifications sent to his given email ID tsheringchopel98@gmail.com. Therefore, his certificate and prize are still with the National Environment Commission Secretariat.

In this regard, NECS hereby issues this final notification with a request to immediately contact the NECS office and claim the prize and certificate within 24th June 2022. Further, NECS solicits assistance of all persons having acquaintance with Mr. Tshering Chopel to kindly inform him about this notification.

Failure to claim the prize within the given deadline shall be deemed as relinquished.
